

Kids Learn Early in Clermont

Did you Know?

“The earlier you invest in childhood development, the greater the return.” - Dr. James Heckman, Nobel Laureate

“Access to, familiarity with and skill using mobile devices are the first steps in achieving digital literacy.” - Dr. Matilde Irigoyen

Inspire a Shared Vision:

In the summer/early fall of 2016, provide a valuable free tool, a tablet, to all Clermont County, Ohio children ages three and four to help them be better prepared for K-12 education.

Along with a tablet, each of approximately 6,050 Clermont kids will receive a “Wow Pouch!” with a range of items for a well-rounded lifestyle.

What You Can Do: Donate! Spread the Word! Volunteer!

Contact John Melvin at john@klicwow.com to help Clermont County children today!

(KLiCWow is a restricted fund within the Clermont Chamber of Commerce Foundation 501(c)(3))